NAMING THE MARINERS

The nickname "Mariners" was selected by the ownership of the Seattle franchise after a "Name the Team Contest" that resulted in over 15,000 entries and over 600 different names being submitted.

When the name "Mariners" was chosen, all the entries suggesting the name were reviewed for their reasons (in 25 words or less).

The winner was Roger Szmodis of Bellevue, Wash. His entry read, "I've selected Mariners because of the natural association between the sea and Seattle and her people, who have been challenged and rewarded by it."

SCOUTING BUREAU/SCOUTING COMBINE

The Seattle Mariners are members of the Major League Scouting Bureau, one of 17 major league teams using the system headed by former Milwaukee Brewer General Manager Jim Wilson. The Bureau employs over 70 scouts throughout the country. It has been in effect since 1975.

In November of 1979, the Mariners also joined forces with the Texas Rangers and the Houston Astros in a combined scouting effort.

TEMPE DIABLO STADIUM

Tempe's Diablo Stadium was completed in 1968, and was used by the Seattle Pilots and Milwaukee Brewers for spring training from 1969-71. In addition to the stadium, the complex includes two and a half diamonds for baseball and two recreational fields. Stadium capacity is 5,600; dimensions are 360 down each line, 420 to the power alleys, and 430 to center. The Mariners have been training there since the 1977 expansion season. It is owned and operated by the City of Tempe Parks and Recreation Department.

RADIO/TELEVISION INFORMATION

KVI RADIO (570)

KVI in Seattle begins a new three-year contract as the flagship station for Mariner baseball. The station has been with the club since 1977. In 1982 all 162 regular season games, as well as 12 spring exhibitions will be broadcast on KVI and the Mariner Radio Network throughout the Northwest.

KSTW-TV (Ch. 11)

KSTW-TV in Tacoma-Seattle is the new Mariner flagship station on television in 1982. The 50-game TV slate is the biggest ever for the Mariners. The schedule includes one spring exhibition (March 28 vs. the Cubs) as well as five home contests.

DAVE NIEHAUS (radio and TV) has been behind the microphone for every game the Mariners have played, joining the Seattle sports scene in 1977. He was born and raised in Princeton, Indiana, and is a graduate of Indiana University. Dave worked for the campus radio station, before going behind the microphone for the Armed Forces radio and television service. He called the action for Dodger baseball in Los Angeles before moving to New York, where he did Yankee games and basketball and hockey from Madison Square Garden.

After leaving the service, he returned to Los Angeles where he kept busy handling the announcing duties for the Dodgers, Rams and Lakers, before establishing himself with Dick Enberg and Don Drysdale as the voices of the California Angels for eight years. Dave also broadcast UCLA football and basketball (1973-76).

He now resides in Bellevue with his wife Marilyn and their three youngsters.

KEN WILSON (radio and TV) has teamed with Dave Niehaus to broadcast each and every game in Mariner history. Born and raised in Detroit, he worked at the University of Michigan radio station and at other stations around the state. After his graduation, Ken began his broadcasting career in radio in Hawaii. Career moves took him to Philadelphia, back to Hawaii (where he became the voice of the Islanders of the Pacific Coast League), and to Cincinnati where he spent winters calling the action of the Swords of the American Hockey League.

Wilson moved to the Northwest in 1977 to join the M's. He has done a sports talk show on KVI from time to time, has also called the action for the basketball games of the Seattle Pacific University. Ken resides in Redmond with his wife Bev and their son Grant.

WES STOCK retired as Mariner pitching coach after the 1981 season, but remains on the scene by joining the TV team as color commentator in 1982. He will bring plenty of insight to the booth. Stock pitched in the American League for eight seasons with the Baltimore Orioles and Kansas City A's (1959-67), including 7-0 and 8-3 seasons for the Orioles (1963-64). He was born in Longview, raised in Shelton, attended Washington State University in Pullman, and resides in Tacoma with his wife Bev and sons Jeff (a member of the Seattle Sounders) and Kevin.

Wes was recognized as one of the finest pitching coaches in baseball while associated with the Mets, Brewers and A's organizations before coming to the M's. He was part of back-to-back World Championships with the Oakland clubs of 1973-74.

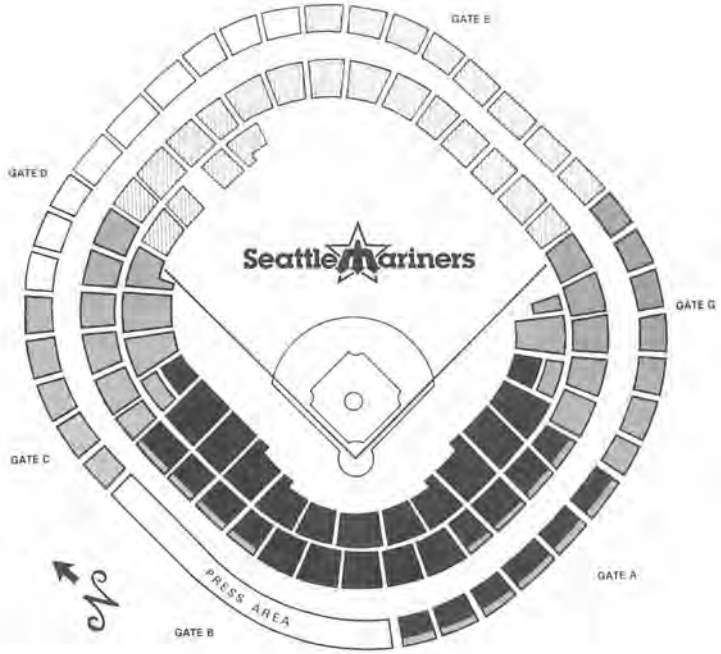
KINGDOME SEATING



GROUND RULES

1) Photographers' Area: The ball is in play if it hits retaining wall and bounces back onto playing field.
2) Batted Ball Hitting Speakers or Roof: In FAIR territory—in play and judged fair or foul in relation to where it lands or touched by a fielder. If caught, the batter is out and runners advance at their own risk.
   In FOUL territory—is automatically a foul ball. If caught the batter is out, and runners advance at their own risk, otherwise ball is dead.
3) Outfield Area: Fairly batted ball in left, center or right field hitting above yellow line is a home run. If ball strikes protruding objects from recessed football bleachers in right and right center, it is automatically a home run.
   Any ball bouncing above yellow line is automatically a two-base hit.

FOUL BALLS HITTING SPEAKERS

Batted balls have hit speakers in foul territory several times in the four years of action in the Kingdome. In addition to the regular Kingdome speakers, other hanging objects have come into play. The special basketball speaker system that hangs above first base has been hit several times, as well as the basketball scoreboard that hangs behind the plate.

Three times a fielder has caught the carom off a foul speaker, with the Mariners Bruce Bochte tracking down two of the bounces. Oakland pitcher Matt Keough made the first catch in 1979 (Aug. 3), while Bochte hauled down one in 1979 (Sept. 3) and in 1980 (May 19).

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

On Aug. 4, 1979, Ruppert Jones popped a foul ball that stuck in the speaker above the first base dugout; it was ruled a strike .

A.L. DESIGNATED HITTERS SINCE 1973

Since the designated hitter rule was instituted by the American League in 1973, as one might expect, DH's have by far outproduced the pitchers at the plate in the National League. Over the span of nine seasons, A.L. DH's have a combined batting average of .258, 104 points better than the .154 mark by the N.L. pitchers. In that time, the DH's have produced 16,078 runs (runs scored plus RBIs minus home runs) compared to 4,572 by the pitchers.

THE RBI CLUB

The RBI Club is a group of area business men and women who are dedicated to the development of Major League Baseball in the Pacific Northwest, and dedicated in particular to the Seattle Mariners. RBI stands for "Real Baseball Involvement". In February of 1980, 12 business leaders were enlisted by "Commissioner" Jay Porter to become charter members of the club. Membership has grown to 32 in 1982, and they all integrally involved, especially in the season ticket sales efforts. Sheldon Best is the new "Commissioner" of the organization.

1981 MARINER HIGHLIGHTS

STAYIN' ALIVE: The M's stayed in the race for a post-season spot until the final week of the season. Using a 7-3 start in the second half, then surviving a 10-game losing streak (Aug. 20-30), the Mariners were not eliminated until losing to Texas on Sept. 29 at the Kingdome, with just 4 games remaining. The 5th place finish in the second half was the club's best-ever.

MANAGERIAL CHANGE: On May 6, Rene Lachemann was named to succeed Maury Wills at manager of the Mariners. Wills was appointed as manager on Aug. 4, 1980, and piloted the M's a total of 58 games over an 57-day span in the regular season. Immediately after his promotion from Spokane, the M's went on a 4-game win streak, and were 15-18 in the first half after a 6-18 start of the season. The overall 1981 record under Lachemann was 38-47 (a .447 pct.).

M'S IN A.L. BATTING RACE: Richie Zisk and Tom Paciorek were prominent figures in the A.L. batting race in 1981, with both holding the lead in the last month of the season. Paciorek held the number 1 spot from Aug. 16-22, and regained it again on Sept. 18, before finishing second with a .326 mark. Zisk was in the drivers seat Aug. 25-Sept. 11, and again Sept. 13-15, before winding up 7th (.311). Boston's Carney Lansford became the first righthanded hitter to win the batting crown since Alex Johnson in 1970, with his .336 average.

20-INNING GAME SETS M'S RECORD: The Mariners and Red Sox battled for 20 innings and 6 hours and 1 minute in a suspended game Sept. 3-4, before the M's took an 8-7 decision. It was the longest game in the storied history of Fenway Park. The curfew ended play after 19 innings on Sept. 3, but Joe Simpson drove home Dave Henderson with the game-winner in the top of the 20th the following evening. Several Mariner club marks were set in the longest game the club has ever played, as a major league record-tying 9 pitchers were used by Rene Lachemann. Both teams combined to use 50 players in the contest, 1 short of the big league record.

M'S RETAIN HOLD OVER YANKS IN DOME: The Mariners entered the '81 season with a 15-8 edge in the Kingdome over the New York Yankees. That dominance continued as the M's took 2 of 3 in the Dome (May 8-9-10), both wins coming on dramatic 9th-inning, game-winning homers by Tom Paciorek. Tom connected off Rudy May on May 8 to lift the M's to a 3-2 win, breaking a 2-2 tie. The following night, with Seattle down 5-3, he belted a 3-run shot off reliever Ron Davis before a crowd of 51,903, the largest to see a game in the Dome since 1977, and the 4th best in club history.

DOME RUNS: For the third consecutive season, more home runs were hit in 1981 in the Kingdome than in any other major ballpark (Seattle 105, Oakland 103, Boston 99). Since coming into the A.L. in 1977, 789 HRs have left the Kingdome, second only to the 817 in Boston over that span. However, over the past 4 seasons, the Kingdome leads the way with 611 compared to runnerup Boston's 598.

WHEN YOU SCORE COUNTS: In the M's 109 games (not including the tie), the team that scored first won 77 times. In addition, 56 times the winning team (M's 22, opponents 34) scored more runs in 1 inning than the opponents did in all 9 innings.

HOME/ROAD: The Mariners posted their best-ever record on the road in 1981, with a 24-28 mark. Ironically, they also had the lowest mark in club history at home, with a 20-37 record in the Kingdome. Despite all the homers in the Kingdome, the M's had a better average (.264 to .239) on the road than at home.

FIELDING: The M's .979 team fielding mark placed them in the middle of the A.L. pack, tied for 8th with 2 other teams. The range of percentages was .984 to .975. By completing 122 doubleplays, Seattle ranked second in the league behind Milwaukee (135). In addition, the M's completed a triple play on May 22 vs. Texas at home. Bruce Bochte was second in the A.L. among first basemen in fielding (.995), as Baltimore's Eddie Murray was the leader (.999).

ON THE RUN: Led by Julio Cruz, the Mariners swiped 100 bases in 1981 to tie for second in the league with Kansas City, both trailing Cleveland (119). Julio was successful on his first 28 attempts of the year, stretching his personal string to 32 in a row (dating back to Sept. 22, 1980) which tied the A.L. record. The streak ended in the first game of the second half, when he was thrown out on a controversial call by California's Ed Ott on Aug. 10. The streak included 3 steals of third base; he was not picked off base during the streak.

TWO MARINER TIES

The Mariners were involved in tie games in 1980 and 1981. The individual and team statistics from both games counted in the statistics, and extra games were scheduled to provide a game in the standings. The first tie occurred on June 2, 1980 at Detroit, when the Mariners and Tigers played to a 13-inning, 3-3- tie. The game was called after 13 innings because of rain. On April 29, 1981, at Minnesota, the M's and Twins tied at 7-7 when rain came at the end of 8 innings.

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead.

If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be re-played in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground. If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in A.L. Regulation 3.8.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a suspended game. Prior to 1969, the game would have been declared a tie and re-played in its entirety at a later date.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE—All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS—502 or more plate appearances, 162 or more innings.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME—Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE—A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles. The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. . . The winter meeting is conducted by conference phone. . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age. . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase—Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age—now drafted in Regular Phase). . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player. . . The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

GAME-WINNING RBI—The game-winning RBI became an official baseball statistic in 1979. It is determined by the "run batted in that gives a team a lead that it never relinquished."

INTERLEAGUE TRADING PERIODS—From 12:01 A.M. on fifth day after completion of world series thru midnight preceding the last scheduled day of the winter meetings; and from 12:01 A.M., Feb. 15 thru midnight, April 1.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE—Baseball measures service in years and days (years - days). 172 days on the active roster during the regular season constitutes a full year.

MAJOR LEAGUE TRADING REGULATIONS—A.L. waivers are not necessary to assign a player contract from one club to another within the league from midnight on the last day of the season thru midnight, June 15 (Pacific time).

A.L. waivers are necessary to assign a player contract from one club to another within the league from 12:01 A.M., June 16 thru midnight, the last day of the season (Pacific time).
